

I urge you to retain the existing rules regarding media ownership. Our system of government cannot function without many sources of news. Without diversity in the news, which is becoming more and more shaded with opinion, the population will be uninformed and distrustful. Protect democracy, avoid momopoly. Thank you.